

Christmas Home

with Project Aria

Leslie Fagan, Stephanie Mara and Guy Few

A cozy house, a fire crackling on the hearth, the scent of pine and spice. A time for friends and family reconnecting and sharing in music and stories around the piano, the warm air filled with laughter and love. The holiday season is a time for reminiscing and making new memories. Join Project Aria as they celebrate Christmas with their new show "Christmas Home." Instrumentation is varied, combining voice, trumpet, piano and even piano, four-hands in many beautiful ways. The program features traditional carols, jazzy Christmas songs, readings of classic Christmas stories and even sing-a-long songs.
